FYI: Tom Thumb, Albertsons and Walmart have many items in 15oz. cans that bear a reliable kosher symbol such as: beans with a Star-K, Hunts tomato products with an OK, pareve chips and crackers, Williams Chili Mix with an OU, etc. All ingredients checked in on Sunday morning must bear an acceptable kosher symbol. All new equipment must be toveled in the TI mikvah before use at the cook-off. Check with TI when to bring it!

DALLAS KOSHER

The Vaad Hakashrus of Dallas

The Vaad (also called the "DK") is our community's non-profit agency to promote the observance of Kashruth through supervision, education and assistance to families and community organizations. The Vaad was founded over 40 years ago by a dedicated group of lay leaders, and today its membership exceeds 800 families from all area congregations and throughout Texas. While its members have varying levels of observance, the DK sets a community standard for Kashruth that is inclusive of everyone and meets the highest Torah standard of which we can all take pride. Please join Dallas Kosher by mailing your tax-deductible donation to DK at 7800 Northaven Road, Dallas, TX 75230.

COMMON RELIABLE CERTIFICATIONS

The following is a partial list of reliable Kashruth certifications found locally. The list is not exhaustive and is subject to change. Please call the DK Rabbinical staff with any questions or concerns at (214) 739-OK-DK (6535) or e-mail us at info@dallaskosher.org. Rabbi Sholey Klein and Rabbi David Shawel are available to help you with your kosher needs. Members receive our newsletter and e-mail updates and alerts. For membership information or event consultation call or e-mail DK Executive Director Jeri Finkelstein. Please visit our website at www.dallaskosher.org for current information on kosher establishments, kashering your home, membership and DK program information.
